OK. Looks good. Can you get rid of the red marks in the e-mail and delete the term next gen in the briefing document but keep the OECA position? Tx.

Subject: Early Guidance for NSPS 0000a

Hi all,

Lisa is out this week so I wanted to pass along a quick note regarding the recently scheduled Early Guidance briefing with the Administrator and hopefully answer any questions.

That meeting has been scheduled for Thursday, December 7 (next week). I know that each of you will need to brief your management prior to that meeting. We were not expecting to see the meeting this soon so we are working to get materials out as quickly as we can. We are briefing our AA this Friday and will distribute materials after that meeting. In the interim, please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks for your understanding.

Karen
